The Spanish gave more money than the French to support the American Revolution.” Hispanics have been part of this country from the beginning as in fact many parts of what is now the U.S. originally belonged to Mexico. There were over 100,000 Hispanics in the territories annexed by the U.S. in the wake of the Mexican-American War. They were cattle ranchers and businesspeople, spread across the Southwest and West Coast who became citizens but in name only. American settlers set out to ...
